PRESIDENT'S SECRETARIAT

New Delhi, the 1st March 1960

No. 29-Prca./60.—The President is pleased to award the Police Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officer of the Uttar Pradesh Police:—

Name of Officer and Rank

Shri Sumer Chand Vatsa, Sub-Inspector, Civil Police, Meerut District, Uttar Pradesh.

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded.

On February 11, 1955, Sub-Inspector Sumer Chand Vatsa, Station Officer, Police Station Behsuma, District Meerut, set out on horse back for village Ram Raj to investigate a case. He was accompanied by a Constable on foot. While passing the Ganga Canal Inspection House, Sub-Inspector Vatsa noticed two men concealing themselves behind a thicket. Getting suspicious, he and the Constable advanced towards the thicket whereupon the two men took to their heels running in different directions. His suspicions confirmed, Sub-Inspector Vatsa pursued one of the men while the Constable chased the other. He shouted to the suspect to stop and when he would not, overtook him and threatened to shoot him unless he did. The suspect suddenly whipped out a pistol and fired at Sub-Inspector Vatsa. Fortunately the shot missed him and as the suspect was about to fire at him again Sub-Inspector Vatsa threw himself on him and grappled with him. A fierce struggle ensued, and in his bid to free himself the suspect inflicted several injuries on Sub-Inspector Vatsa's neck and hands. Although bleeding profusely and despite the fact that the suspect was physically much stronger than him, Sub-Inspector Vatsa did not make use of his own fire-arm but continued to grapple with him until he eventually succeed in overpowering and disarming him. Later it was found that the suspect was the notorious dacoit Samroo, the chief lieutenant of outlaw Kapoora. The Constable unfortunately was unable to apprehend the other dacoit who made good his escape.

Sub-Inspector Sumer Chand Vatsa could quite easily have shot the dacoit in self defence but preferred to arrest him and throughout this encounter showed initiative, courage and devotion to duty of a high order.

2. This award is made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the rules governing the award of the Police Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in rule 5.
